"THE QUAKER GIRL" AT THE WHEATON NEXT MONDAY

"The Quaker Girl," the famous musical hit of three continents, having enjoyed a season's run in New York comes to the Wheaton Theatre at Weiser on Monday, February 9th. John P. Slocum is sending the entire company here of over 85 singers, headed by Victor Morley, who will play Tony Chute, the role of the young American who sings and dances his way into the heart of the Quaker lass during three acts of tuneful and amusing entertainment. Not much need be said of the history of this musical hit of three continents, as most people know that it ran two years in London and a year in Paris before coming to America and is now being played in Australia and South America.

It is all about a demure Quakeress who chafes under the stern restriction of her religion and finally forsakes her home in an English Quaker village for gayest Paris. There she becomes a model in a fashionable modiste's salon and straightway is taken up by society and nobility and her demure frocks become fashion's rage. She is involved in state's intrigue, saves a prime minister from disgrace and is finally won by a gay young American after he has made love to her assiduously for three acts and has overcome the usual musical comedy obstacle to the path of true love.

Lionel Monckton's score is world famous and the "Come to the Ball" waltz excels that of the "Merry Widow" in seductive rhythm. The "Tony" song and dance solo has become almost equally popular and there are a dozen other song hits.

Sale opens Friday, February 6th at 10 a. m. at Cutting drug store Weiser. Write or phone your orders to Cutting Drug company or manager of Wheaton theatre, Weiser. Special train from Ontario returning after the show.
